OSHER
LIFELONG LEARNING
INSTITUTE

Welcome to the Osher Institute!

Established in 2004 at the University of Richmond School of Continuing Studies, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute operates through the support of its members, the University of Richmond, and through an endowment from the Bernard Osher Foundation of San Francisco. There are more than 100 Osher Institutes in colleges and universities throughout the United States. We offer intellectual stimulation and civic engagement in a community of lifelong learners, age 50 and better.

Rediscover your love for learning. And do it all on the beautiful University of Richmond campus. We offer an extensive array of courses in the liberal arts in the fall, spring and summer semesters. The offerings are a combination of undergraduate credit courses for audit, special interest groups, mini-courses, free lectures, community service projects, and more. There are no entrance requirements, no tests and no grades. In fact, no college background is needed at all—it's your love of learning that counts.

If you're 50 or better with a curious mind and a keen interest in learning, we'd love for you to join us.

Osher Leadership Council

Composed of Osher members, the Osher Leadership Council is actively engaged in volunteer service for all aspects of the Osher Institute. A list of the current members and meeting minutes of the Osher Leadership Council are posted on the Osher website. Leadership Council members serve on teams for Membership, Marketing, Curriculum, Course Leader Support and Development.

Osher Volunteer Opportunities

Members of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute are invited to participate as volunteers in many aspects of the Institute. Osher members who engage as volunteers expand their Osher experience in and beyond the classroom by leading Osher classes, serving on volunteer teams and more. Please contact the Osher office for more details and to sign-up for volunteer opportunities.

The Great Divide: Same Situation, Different Perspectives

(lecture, discussion, reading)

New! In fiction, as in real life, the conflict in relationships between men and women is often caused by their viewing the same situation in significantly different ways. Using the works of three lesser-known American women writers, we will examine this theme. The required readings for the first class, to be read in advance, will be Kate Chopin’s “The Story of an Hour,” “Desiree’s Baby,” “A Respectable Woman,” and “The Kiss.” These Chopin stories may be read for free online. For the second class, the required readings will be “The Yellow Wallpaper,” “Turned,” and “Making a Change,” all of which are available in The Charlotte Perkins Gilman Reader, required for this class.
