Happy Spring

Learning is in full bloom this spring!

SPRING 2016

RICHMOND
School of Professional
& Continuing Studies™

Our History

Established in 2004 at the University of Richmond's School of Professional and Continuing Studies, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute operates through the support of its members, the University of Richmond, and an endowment from the Bernard Osher Foundation of San Francisco. There are 119 Osher Institutes in colleges and universities throughout the United States. We offer intellectual stimulation and civic engagement in a community of lifelong learners age 50 and better.

Through the Osher Institute you may rediscover your love for learning on the beautiful University of Richmond campus. We offer a wide array of academic courses and programs year round, in the spring, summer and fall semesters. Osher offerings include undergraduate credit courses for audit, special interest groups, mini-courses, free lectures, and more. There are no entrance requirements, no tests and no grades. In fact, no college background is needed at all—it's your love of learning that counts. If you're 50 or better with a curious mind and a keen interest in learning, we'd love for you to join us.

This schedule is a publication of the University of Richmond School of Professional and Continuing Studies. The contents represent the most current information available at the time of publication. However, due to the period of time covered by this catalog, it is reasonable to expect changes to be made without prior notice. Comments and course suggestions are welcome. Please call (804) 287-6344 or e-mail margaret.watson@richmond.edu.

Common Ground Mission Statement

The University of Richmond is committed to developing a diverse workforce and student body, and to modeling an inclusive campus community which values the expression of differences in ways that promote excellence in teaching, learning, personal development, and institutional success.

Jeanne Clery Disclosure Statement

The University Police Department, in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Disclosure Act, publishes an annual report outlining its policies, functions, campus safety plans, prevention techniques, and tabulated statistics for the most recent three-year period. For a copy of the Department's Annual Report, call (804) 289-8715, write the University of Richmond Police Department, att. Jeanne Clery Crime Statistician, Special Programs Building, 31 UR Drive, University of Richmond, VA 23173 or access the report online at police.richmond.edu.

Learning is in full bloom this spring.

at the University of Richmond
osher.richmond.edu

The spring semester marks the largest selection of osher classes—choose from more than 90 offerings at the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of Richmond.

Our strategic plan identified the need to continue to provide quality programming, so we hope you'll find these offerings appealing.

Partnerships are also a part of our strategic plan, so be sure to note our continuing partnership with The Center for Culinary Arts. There are Osher classes led by the Center's instructors and an Osher discount for the Center's courses.

Our Osher Institute is continuing to offer domestic and international trips. China! Ireland! We are finalizing the 2016 and 2017 trips now, so stay tuned!

Ready to get started? Familiarize yourself with our schedule by reviewing page 4. Then sign up for an annual membership. Already a member? Register for spring classes and programs. Volunteer to serve on an Osher team. Join an interest group. Get involved!

JANUARY

Great Decisions 2016

READING, FACILITATED DISCUSSION

Ri UPDATED Designed by the Foreign Policy Association (FPA) and facilitated at the grassroots at hundreds of locations nationwide, the Great Decisions program highlights eight of the most thought-provoking foreign policy challenges facing Americans each year. Each week we will read an article on a specific foreign policy challenge in advance of class, view a 25-minute video and then have a discussion. This year's topics include The Middle East, The Rise of ISIS, The Future of Kurdistan, Migration, The Koreas, The United Nations, Climate Change, and Cuba and the U.S. The 2016 Great Decisions briefing book serves as the focal text for the class and provides background information, current data, and policy options for each topic. Students should purchase the briefing book ($20.00) and read the first topic for the first class. To purchase the briefing book and to learn more about the Great Decisions program, visit <http://www.fpa.org>.

The American Renaissance and Its Contemporary Significance: Exploring the Political Thought of Emerson, Hawthorne, and Melville

READING, LECTURE, DISCUSSION

NEW Become acquainted (or reacquainted) with literature of the American Renaissance of the mid-19th Century, specifically that of Emerson, Hawthorne, and Melville. Uncover their views on American democracy and national identity, and examine the relevance of those views for today's American politics. Discuss how the political and social issues of that time (racism, immigration, imperialism, etc.) continue to be important today. These authors may help shed light on possibilities for making America a better democracy. Beginning required reading: Carol Bode (ed.), in collaboration with Malcolm Cowley, The Portable Emerson (NY: Penguin Books, 1981 ed.): 'The American Scholar,' 'Divinity School Address,' 'The Transcendentalist,' and 'Self Reliance.'

The Phoenicians

LECTURE, DISCUSSION

REPRISED In spite of recent advances in historical and archaeological research, the story of the Phoenicians remains an elusive one. The broad geographical spread of their civilization, which extended through the Mediterranean basin and beyond, makes any synthesis of the subject difficult. With only a few exceptions, none of the primary Phoenician coastal sites have been systematically excavated below Roman-period occupation levels.

Onorate l'altissimo Poeta: The Memory of Dante in Contemporary Florence

LECTURE, DISCUSSION

Ri NEW Dante Alighieri's (b. 1265) 'Divine Comedy' is considered by many to be the defining epic of the Middle Ages. The legacy of Florence's prodigal son, who suffered the painful fate of political exile from his beloved city, has become a defining aspect of the city's historical memory and its self-fashioned cultural image. From Dan Brown and the 'Inferno Florence Guide' app to new plans for the reconstruction of Santa Croce, we will explore how the memory of Dante has manifested itself today in Florence's popular culture.

Osher Institute Travel for 2016-17

The Osher Institute has several interesting domestic and international trips for 2016.

As we go to press, our 2016 domestic trips are still under discussion. Be on the lookout for an email about where we're going!

We are excited to offer a trip to China in October, 2016. We have an Osher member who has lived in China and has offered to this trip. Don't miss this opportunity to visit the Great Wall of China, the Terracotta Army in Xi'an, and other unique world treasures. There are only a few spaces left on this special trip, customized just for our Osher members.

Our other trip is to Ireland and will be in the fall of 2016. This trip will be a partnership with the Osher Institute at Coastal Carolina. Information about this trip will be forthcoming.

We are also planning a trip to Ecuador and the Galapagos Islands in March of 2017. This is being coordinated by an Osher member who has traveled to this part of the world on a regular basis. There is a class offered this semester on Ecuador, which will give you wonderful insights into what the trip will offer.

Let us hear from you! We'd appreciate your input on where you'd like to go. For questions or comments, please contact Peggy Watson at margaret.watson@richmond.edu.

Bicycling

This group will explore bike trails mainly in the Richmond area, with possible rides on trails around Virginia. Group members will use their personal bikes and helmets and provide their own transportation to the bike trails. Most rides will be on week days, of moderate difficulty, and several hours duration. The group coordinator is John Votta at johnjoy2you@verizon.net. All participants are required to sign a liability release form.

Bridge

The social/party/duplicate bridge-group meets on the first Friday of each month at 1 p.m. A short bridge lesson is taught at the beginning of each session. Please contact Ellen Hollands at efine98@aol.com or (804) 741-0221 if you are interested in joining. These are FUN groups. All levels are welcome!

Great Conversations

For the past eight years our group has been discussing short stories, essays and poetry, with a few longer readings mixed in. The subjects of our chats? This, that and the other thing. As one of our members said long ago, "This is the beginning of a great adventure!" We've floated deep into the Heart of Darkness with Joseph Conrad; in 'Roman Fever', Edith Wharton allowed us to eavesdrop on a long-ago romantic rivalry between two wealthy matrons; Thucydides introduced us to power politics between Athens and Sparta with the tiny isle of Melos as the prize. The adventure continues! We'll discuss Annie Dillard's wonderful essay, 'Seeing'; and writing by Mark Twain, Dorothy Parker and Aristophanes which is sure to provoke laughter. There's much more to come. We hope you'll join us on the fourth Wednesday of every month from 2-4 pm for smart, friendly conversation about shoes and ships and sealing wax, not to mention cabbages and kings, and who knows what else? If you'd like to sign up, or have questions, please contact John Bruns, the group coordinator, at johnbruns@comcast.net.

Hikers

Come with us and explore the wonders of nature. The breathtaking waterfalls, wildlife, various plants and vegetation; not to mention historic urban settings. Our hikes run from September through June and cover an array of venues from the Shenandoah National Forest to urban hikes, and all points in between. Our hikes generally run between four and seven miles in length with varying degrees of difficulty and elevation change. We generally leave campus around 8 AM and return by 5 PM. For more information, contact the group coordinator; Tim Hanger at tmhang5@gmail.com. All participants are required to sign a liability release form.

Investments

Now is a great time to join the Investments group. Share your knowledge and gain new ideas that may help you in your personal portfolio. Participants assume any and all risks related to their investment decisions. The group coordinator is Charlie Huffstetler at clh1146@verizon.net.

Literary Dreamers

Osher members are welcome to join this group founded in 2001 by dedicated School of Professional and Continuing Studies students. Readings range from academic non-fiction to literary fiction to popular fiction. The group coordinator is Kelly Winters at kwpw79@gmail.com.

Theatre Lovers

A love for live theatre is the only prerequisite for joining this interest group. This new Osher interest group hopes to explore the Richmond theatre scene by selecting and attending various performances throughout the year. Here's this year's line-up:

01/31/16 Unexpected Tenderness
03/20/16 Moon Over Buffalo
05/11/16 The Lion King
06/26/16 The Boy From Oz

There is a wonderful social aspect to this group. When appropriate, we plan to gather after a performance for discussion and a meal. We also hope there will be occasions to go backstage and talk with local actors. To learn more and to join, please contact Linda Turner at lturner@richmond.edu.
