Join the University of Richmond School of Professional and Continuing Studies for a Teacher Licensure Program (TLP) study abroad course set in the stunning medieval city of Florence, the spectacular capital of the region of Tuscany and in the heart of central Italy, Reggello, the picturesque market town tucked between Arno river valley and the mountains of Pratomagno — while earning three credits for EDUC 318U/518U: Diverse Learners. Fifteen hours of course instruction before and after the study abroad will be held during the 8-Week Summer 2012 schedule.

Experience, Explore and Engage

Experience first-hand the international issues regarding our changing school population and diverse learner needs. Visit ancient Italian cities on day trips including Pisa, Assisi, Siena and Lucca. Explore the territory of Florence and its exceptional world heritage, overflow of palaces, churches, and museums filled with masterful paintings and sculptures. Engage with others to become citizens of the world.
