

University of Richmond

2017 Math Science Investigators (MSI) Program Teacher Recommendation Form

STUDENT NAME:

TEACHER:

SUBJECT:

NAME OF SCHOOL

PHONE NUMBER:

EMAIL:

STUDENT EVALUATION

	Almost Always	Often	Sometimes	Rare	Never
Ease of Learning: Enjoys challenging problems, assignments, and issues. Learns quickly.
Adaptability: Approaches ideas and problems from a number of directions. Finds alternative means of solving problems. Thinks about ideas in new ways.
Initiative and Enthusiasm: A highly motivated and independent in worker that seeks additional tasks; intellectually curious; stays actively engaged in activities.
Persistence: One that stays with tasks; relates progress on tasks to accomplishing larger goals.
Reasoning: He/she uses logic, analytical reason, and/or creative thinking to propose ideas or solve problems.
Communication: He/She is an effective communicator.

Please include a brief narrative about the student and their potential in math and science.

Would you recommend this student for the MSI program?

Teacher Signature:

Date

THE DEADLINE TO RECEIVE ALL APPLICATION MATERIALS IS WEDNESDAY, APRIL 7.

Applications materials can be received by mail, e-mail, or fax.

Mail

University of Richmond
Math Science Investigators (MSI) Program
Attn: Dr. David Kitchen, Associate Dean
School of Professional and Continuing Studies
28 Westhampton Way
Richmond, VA 23173

Email

dkitchen@richmond.edu

Fax

(804) 289-8138