Land and Life on the Colonial Plantation:
From Jamestown to Stratford Hall
July 24-27, 2013

Mary Dell Pritzlaff Fellowship for Teachers

All applicants for a Mary Dell Pritzlaff fellowship providing full tuition, housing and meals should inquire to Jon Bachman at Jbachman@stratfordhall.org or call 804-493-1972 for further details.

Application Form

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Name School Name

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Home Address School Address

____________________________________________________________________________________________

City State Zip City State Zip

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Home Phone Cell Phone School Phone #

____________________________________________________________________________________________

E-Mail Address (please print legibly) School FAX #

____________________________________________________________________________________________

Grade(s) and Subject (s) currently taught (or to be taught in 2012-2013 School Year)

On a separate sheet, or in your application e-mail, discuss in no more than 250 words your motivation for participation in this institute. As applicable, include your interest in the colonial period, history, geography and/or Virginia’s Tidewater.

Applications will be accepted until April 26, 2013. Strong applicants will learn of their acceptance immediately. Space is limited to 30 participants.

Please e-mail (or mail) the above information to the Coordinator of Educational Events at Stratford Hall
Jon Bachman, jbachman@stratfordhall.org
Coordinator of Educational Events, Stratford Hall, 483 Great House Road, Stratford, VA, 22558
For more information http://www.stratfordhall.org/learn/education/economicsem.php