D—River Ship

DAY 3 Antwerp

Explore Belgium's second−largest city, famous for its 16th−century architecture, on a walking tour. Its centerpiece is the stunning Gothic Antwerp Cathedral, dating to the 14th century and adorned with paintings by the Flemish master Peter Paul Rubens.

The afternoon is yours. This evening, as you cruise, join your fellow travelers for a Welcome Drink followed by your Captain’s Welcome Dinner.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 4 Ghent

Explore one of Belgium’s oldest cities, Ghent, “the Jewel of Flanders,” on a morning walking tour that will immerse you in its rich history. Medieval and Renaissance buildings tell the story of city’s past reign as a textile capital from the eleventh century onward, both more populous and wealthier than London for several centuries.

Continue discovering Ghent on your own this afternoon.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 5 Veere, the Netherlands • Optional Delta Works tour

Arrive in the Netherlands this morning to visit the picturesque, artist−friendly village of Veere during a walking tour followed by a bit of time to continue exploring on your own.

Enjoy an afternoon at leisure. Or, join an optional excursion to the Delta Works, an engineering marvel designed to protect the Netherlands from destructive North Sea floods.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 6 Kinderdijk • Optional Delft Porcelain Factory Tour and Market Visit • Rotterdam

Spend the morning in Kinderdijk, discovering its famed 19 windmills. These well−preserved, historic structures became protected by UNESCO in 1997. Make sure to take note of the Blokker Windmill, which is supported in part by Grand Circle Foundation.

Stroll around the site, with plenty of time to take photos of these nostalgic, yet pragmatic creations.

Embark the ship for a short cruise to Rotterdam—setting off after lunch for a walking tour of the city, which was almost completely destroyed during World War II. The reconstructed city is now known for its crisp, modern architecture.

Enjoy free time this afternoon, or join an optional tour to the famous Delft porcelain factory.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 7 Arnhem • Operation Market Garden discussion • Optional Van Gogh’s Surroundings tour

One of the oldest cities in the Netherlands, Arnhem played a significant role in the Allies' Operation Market Garden. You'll hear more about this ill-fated maneuver this morning, which was an attempt to bring the war to an earlier end, in an onboard Exclusive Discovery Series event after breakfast.

Later this morning, set across the banks of both the Nederrijn and Sin-Jansbeek rivers for a morning walking tour of Arnhem. In the time since Operation Market Garden, the city has reemerged as a lively cultural center with an eye for fashion and design. Following your tour, enjoy lunch onboard your river ship, and free time to explore this charming city independently.

Or, choose to join our optional tour, Van Gogh’s Surroundings. Walk in the footsteps of the famous Dutch Impressionist painter during a visit to the town of Nuenen, where you’ll see the pastoral sights that inspired Vincent Van Gogh—such as the iconic Watermill of Opwetten. You’ll also have the opportunity to visit Nuenen’s new Vincentre—a museum dedicated to the works and life of Van Gogh.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 8 Enkhuizen

Today’s discoveries include a walking tour of medieval Enkhuizen, and following lunch onboard, a visit to the Zuiderzee Museum, an open-air complex that depicts life in this region in the 19th and early 20th centuries.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 9 Enkhuizen • Home-Hosted Op de Koffie • Amsterdam

This morning, enjoy a special Exclusive Discovery Series Home-Hosted Op de Koffie with a local family, during which you can share stories over coffee and cake.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 10 Optional Aalsmeer Flower Auction excursion • Amsterdam

Early this morning, you can choose to immerse yourself in the spectacle of the Aalsmeer Flower Auction (the world’s largest) during an optional outing. Then, get acquainted with the Netherlands’ capital this morning on an Amsterdam canal cruise. While traversing these 400-year-old canals—a UNESCO World Heritage Site—you’ll view such landmarks as the 17th-century Royal Palace and the Mint Tower, which has retained its name even though gold and silver coins were minted here for only a couple of years.

The rest of the day is yours to continue exploring Amsterdam on your own.

B,L,D—River Ship

DAY 11 Amsterdam • Keukenhof Flower Park • Tulip farm visit • Captain’s Farewell Dinner

Set in the heart of the western Netherlands’ tulip-growing region, you’ll have the opportunity to stroll through the park’s 70 acres of lovely, tree-shaded grounds with ponds, winding paths, streams, and fountains, and enjoy boxed lunch on site.

Tonight, gather with your fellow travelers for your Captain’s Farewell Dinner.

Please note: Weather conditions and seasonal fluctuations may affect flower-blooming season. The lush blooming of the park and farm usually peaks in mid–April. Not all blooms will be visible in March and May.

B,L,D—River Ship
